BIOHAZARD

Street Date: 6/21/2016
SRP: $14.99
Cost:

Synopsis:

The cult classic returns featuring an all-new 2K 16x9 widescreen film transfer from the original 35mm negative! A group of scientists, army types and a buxom psychic use a variety of methods to suck a bloodthirsty alien out of another dimension. Upon arriving, the little devil blasts his way loose, taking part of a soldier's face along the way. The psychic and her network of friends chase the beast, tracking him down for a blood-drenched finale in an underground beauty shop. Filmed over the course of two years, BIOHAZARD (1983-84) was Fred Olen Ray's follow up to his movie SCALPS and features much of the same cast and crew. This time around the monster was played by the director's 5 year old son, Chris Olen Ray. Cult favorites Angelique Pettyjohn (MAD DOCTOR OF BLOOD ISLAND, STAR TREK, GET SMART), Aldo Ray (THE GREEN BERETS) and Carroll Borland (MARK OF THE VAMPIRE, FLASH GORDON) were pressed into service for added name value. The end result was a campy, quirky "everything but the kitchen sink" sci-fi monster fest! Mastered in 16x9 widescreen from a 2K scan of the original 35mm negative BIOHAZARD rips across the screen like never before in Blood Color! Special Features: New audio commentary by Fred Olen Ray and David DeCoteau, "Remembering Biohazard" featurette, unfinished scenes.
