SRP: $19.99

From the director of the cult classics Slime City and Slime City Massacre comes a spine-tingling, gut-wrenching new tale of terror that aintitcool.com calls "Ingeniously constructed...clever and original...a lot of fun". Decades later, psychiatrists have convinced Drew that his childhood trauma was a figment of his imagination – until he returns home to confront his darkest fears. As the people in his life begin to disappear, Drew suspects the creature is hell-bent on his destruction.
