TELESCOPIC BATON FOR POLICE AND SECURITY FORCES

Street Date: 3/12/2019
SRP: $29.99
Cost:

Synopsis:

On this DVD we show you simple concepts using the telescope bat against different kinds of attacks. We use the telescope bat open and closed. The telescope bat is a highly effective tool which can be used fully extended at full range as an effective tool and is easy to carry around and store at the mission belt. The DVD is both meant for amateurs who want to use the bat as a tool for self-defense, for martial artists who would like to extend their horizon, and finally for professionals such as security forces or policemen who use the telescope bat as part of their weapon spectrum. For this film we only use automatic telescope bats. Therefore we will use a big segment of this DVD to work with the closed bat in order to open it during the fight. In the second half of this DVD we show you different techniques using the open bat which can be enforced using any other traditional bat-like object, too.

Florian Lahner belongs to the leading tactical educators in Europe. As one of a few private service providers he regularly teaches police, military and security service providers in Europe. For civilians he offers a seminar program in order to teach effective, simple defense concepts. Here, martial arts aren't the crucial point but rather realistic, simple applications which can be adopted after only little practice. Florian Lahner is a personal student of Bram Frank from the USA. He carries numerous degrees in different combat system and is senior tactical instructor for blade weapons, guns, impact tools, stick and empty hands.

FORGOTTEN ED WOOD: MARRIED TOO YOUNG PLUS BONUS FEATURE THE VIOLENT YEARS

Street Date: 3/12/2019
SRP: $14.99
Cost:

Synopsis:

Two high-school sweethearts get married, and then find that married life isn't what they thought it would be. In their desperation, they get mixed up with a gang of car thieves.

- MARRIED TOO YOUNG is a dramatic story full of juke joints, hot rod thrills, back seat dating, outraged parents, and troubled teens. The backstory of this film is equally interesting: Faced with an unfinished screenplay, Headliner Productions brought in cult legend Edward D. Wood Jr., who had previously written The Sinister Urge (1960) and The Violent Years (1956) for the company. Receiving no credit, Wood completed the screenplay which deals with auto racing, car theft and kids who...marry too young. Starring Harold Lloyd Jr. (son of the silent comedian) and Jana Lund (Frankenstein 1970), MARRIED TOO YOUNG is now available for the first time in an authorized release from the original 35mm vault elements, presented in 1.66 widescreen.
- This DVD contains a bonus second feature, Headliner's THE VIOLENT YEARS (also written by Ed Wood), which tells a seedy tale about the teenage daughter of wealthy parents who don't seem to make time for her. What does she do? Go out looking for thrills as the leader of her all-girl gang who steal, rob, and rape young men.

WING TSON: EXAM TO BECOME FIRST TECHNICIAN, VOLUME 1

Street Date: 3/19/2019
SRP: $29.99
Cost:

Synopsis:

The chi sao program, which is also called “sticking arms,” is considered the soul of the Wing Tson system. It begins on the elementary level and trains the tactile reflexes in an incredible manner. Attack and defense techniques are then learned to show how to withstand the opponent's force and use it against them. This allows for smaller people to get the opportunity to effectively assert themselves against a stronger aggressor. The idea behind this video program isn't to memorize motion sequences but to be able to respond to any situation with the tactile senses. This DVD, presented by Sifu Markus Schinhammer, contains the first and second section chi sao and also open applications.
